

Student Awards Night

Dublin, Ireland 01.05.2017

The Dublin Institute of Technology (DIT) School of Electrical & Electronic Engineering Student Award Ceremony is a special ceremony which highlights the achievements of the top graduates in engineering fields.

Mitsubishi Electric were delighted to continue to sponsor the 'David Berber Mitsubishi Electric Award', named so in memory of David Berber, customer, distributor and friend to Mitsubishi Electric. The David Berber Mitsubishi Electric Award is bestowed to the Best Overall Academic Performance in the Final Year of the BEngTech in Electrical & Control Engineering (DT009).

David Berber, who was often referred to by his friends and colleagues as "Mr. PLC", spent over thirty years in the Electrical Industry. He began his career upon graduating from DIT and going on to become an Electrical Controls lecturer at the same institution. In his later years David founded his own company Automation and Controls Engineering where he became a loyal partner of Mitsubishi Electric.

Congratulations to Ciaran Nugent & Ronan Byrne who both received the 'David Berber Mitsubishi Electric Award' at the Dublin Institute of Technology (DIT) School of Electrical & Electronic Engineering Student Award Ceremony.

Congratulations also to Christopher Dunne who received the Best overall Academic performance in the Second Year of the BEngTech in Electrical and Control Engineering (DT009/2).

Ciarán Moody, General Manager of Mitsubishi Electric Ireland on the awards night, "these students are the next generation of engineers from Ireland and are capable of taking their place on the world's stage. We are happy to mark the incredible achievement this award represents and we wish the recipients every success in their engineering careers".
